Info

Nestled in the Wicklow hills, this pair of self-catering cottages, built on a working sheep and cattle farm, take full advantage of the magnificent views offered by the surrounding countryside.

Part of The Wicklow Way is just half a kilometer away, and the property is an ideal base for exploring the delights of both Wicklow and Wexford. Avoca, the Ballykissangel village, is just 25kms away and Dublin is 70 kms distant. There is a tennis court near the farmyard just 200m away and horse riding, fishing and golf are all available locally.

The cottages are part of the farm and we love to show our guests any events that are happening on the farm, like lambing and calving in March and April, shearing in January and May and any other activity that may be going on on busy farm.
